NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEM. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO GET PLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES YOU ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWNS IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

LETTERS OF JUDGE PEARSON AND MR. BOYDEN—THE CRY OF WAR.

To the People of North Carolina:

FELLOW CITIZENS—The Presidential canvass, now in progress, is of the highest importance. None have ever been more so.—The issues involved are not simply whether Mr. Seymour or Gen. Grant shall be our next President, or whether this or that party shall govern the Federal Republic and administer the government in accordance with the Federal Constitution. But the real question is vital: Whether we shall have a free Republic or not—whether we shall have a Constitution or not—whether we shall have a government of co-equal States united under a government for the general welfare, under a written Constitution, or whether these States shall be obliterated and all the powers of the government consolidated at Washington, to be wielded by one or a number of despots.—The issue is a fearful one, and no patriot, no friend of peace, of liberty and of right, can be indifferent to it.

We have thought, that no people in this great Republic better love the doctrines and principles of the Federal Constitution,—venerate more the principles of civil liberty—than the people of North Carolina. You were never enemies to the Federal Constitution, rightly administered. You were never enemies to the Federal Union, as it was formed by its founders. You are not now. You, therefore, cannot be indifferent, when both are menaced, and when both are tottering to their fall. If at any time in the past our devotion to them has been shaken, let us, in the name of God, return to our first love, and seek to preserve them in their pristine character, for ourselves and our children.

Recently, you have been addressed by two venerable gentlemen, Hon. Richmond M. Pearson and Hon. Nat. Boyden, in two earnest letters on the issues of the campaign. Their positions and character in the past, if their reasoning did not, have secured your respectful consideration. They both claim to be Conservatives. It is to be regretted that both the matter of their letters, and the medium through which they addressed you, invalidate that claim. If a man is known by the company he keeps, it is passing strange that they should claim to be Conservatives, while urging upon you to vote for Grant and Colfax, especially through the medium of the N. C. Standard, W. W. Holden's organ. It is but a short time since either of these venerable gentlemen would touch the Standard, or its head, with a forty-foot pole. Even now they seem very chary of them, lest the Conservatives should say to them, "Do you follow after or affiliate with Holden?" O, it was a bitter pill, yet they have swallowed it.

The letters, though two, are one—one in temper, in topics and in zeal for their new friends. Our space forbids the re-publication of them here. Let us analyse them, in order that "your pure minds may be stirred up by way of remembrance."

1. They both profess to be much alarmed and from the same cause. They snuff war, though the battle is in the distance

2. They conclude that we shall have war, because of certain declarations of General Blair, in a letter of his before his nomination for the Vice Presidency: because the National Democratic Convention declares the reconstruction acts unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; and because the unconstitutional and revolutionary carpet bag, negro State governments in the South will never quietly submit to the restoration of the Federal Constitution and their consequent destruction.

3. For the reason, therefore, that they believe that the election of Seymour and Blair will certainly bring about the restoration of the Federal Constitution and the full functions of the government, and inasmuch as the carpet-bag, unconstitutional negro State governments will not quietly submit to the government of the United States under the Constitution, and inasmuch as they believe that the election of Grant and Colfax will inevitably and imperatively fix said governments upon the Southern States and compel peace, even by the sword, therefore they will vote for Grant and Colfax, and they urge you to do the same!!

Read the letters again, if you have them, and see if we have not given you their substance in a nutshell. We cannot draw from them an additional idea to those found in the foregoing analysis.

Fellow citizens, does it not strike you as very strange, that Judge Pearson and Mr. Boyden could address to you two long letters at the present crisis, and two very earnest and political letters withal, and yet never once raise their voice in behalf of the Federal Constitution, and of the Federal Union under that Constitution? What ever gave either of them any political significance in North Carolina, but their own devotion to the Constitution and the Union in the past? Have they lost their first love? Have they forgotten our noble Constitution in the midst of the storm and tempest which have raged around it, or have they ceased to venerate and love it? If so, the Conservatives of North Carolina cannot do otherwise, how much soever it may pain them, than to class them among the Holdenites!

But both these gentlemen insist upon it, that war is inevitable, if Seymour and Blair are elected. War is a dreadful thing. No Conservative man, woman or child, desires any such thing as war. Not one of them intends to provoke a war or have a war on any terms. For that reason, they will vote for Seymour and Blair. They lead the party of the Constitution and the Union. That is the peace party. If the Constitution and the Union are restored and carried out, there cannot be any war. Did not Judge Pearson and Mr. Boyden tell you so in 1860-61? Did they not say that if the Constitution were observed and the Union sustained, there could be no war? Did not war come because the Constitution was violated? Could it ever have come but for that? Certainly not. How is it that these venerable gentlemen are so charged? We tell you that the party which supports the Constitution and the Union, that desires them restored and put in full force as the fathers of the Republic intended, is the peace party—that the observance of the Constitution must bring peace, and nothing else will. Judge Pearson and Mr. Boyden do not talk as they did in 1860-61. They now tell you, that although they do not approve of the reconstruction acts, that although they do not believe in the doctrines of the Radical party, that although the Constitution has been disregarded by Congress, because of the emergency, and that although that body has done "extra-constitutional" things and things "outside of the Constitution," yet it will never do to restore the Constitution—it will never do for the government to correct its own bad work and go back to the Constitution, as they think it certainly would do if the Democrats are put in power again, because, say they, if Grant and Colfax are not elected, these unconstitutional, carpet-bag Southern State governments would not stand it—that the negroes would never submit to it, and we should have war!!

These venerable gentlemen are alarmed. Let us see if there be any good cause for it, arising from the principles or policy, or temper or language, of the Democrats and Conservatives. So far as the Conservatives and Democrats of North Carolina are concerned, they have avowed their determination to obey the laws and the Constitution of the State, how much soever they may believe them unconstitutional, revolutionary, and, therefore, legally void, so long as they are in existence. They have declared their purpose to use only legitimate means to effect their removal, and that their appeal shall be made to the ballot box. However offensive or unjust and subversive of right they regard universal negro suffrage, negro juries and negro office holding, as results of Congressional reconstruction, and no matter how offensive the administration of the State government may be to them, they have avowed the determination of seeking redress only through the ballot-box. We defy Judge Pearson and Mr. Boyden to show that the Conservatives and Democrats of North Carolina have, by word or deed, put forth, as a party measure, the nullification of the State Constitution or laws or the use of violence in any form to effect that object. They cannot show it.—There is no foundation for the silly idea that the Conservatives and Democrats desire war or design to provoke it.

Nor do these venerable gentlemen find any countenance to this idea in the National Democratic platform, in the letters of acceptance of Mr. Seymour or of Gen. Blair, or in the resolutions and speeches of Democrats and Conservatives generally. The idea of bringing on a war for the purpose of overturning the carpet bag, scallawag and negro State governments of the South, is no part of the Democratic policy. None of them have avowed anything like it, and none of them mean anything like it. Why, then, should they be alarmed at the prospect of war? We have shown that the present Democratic party is the party of the Constitution and the Union, and is therefore the peace party. If there be no danger of the Democrats making war, whence the danger? Why General Grant, in his letter of acceptance, c'o e.l, by saying, "Let us have peace!" Are those words ominous? Do they mean war? There is the difficulty. They know Gen Grant and they think they know the Radical party, and that they mean the peace of the sword, and hence their alarm!

Whence must war come? Why, as Mr. Boyden would say, "that man Blair said in his letter before his nomination: 'There is but one way to restore the Government and the Constitution, and that is for the President elect to declare these acts null and void, compel the army to undo its usurpations at the South, disperse the carpet-bag State governments, allow the white people to reorganize their own governments, and elect Senators and Representatives,' and the Democratic Convention nominated him for Vice President, and, of course, endorses his views." There is not a particle of evidence that the National Democratic Convention endorsed Gen. Blair's first letter. If the Convention had fully embraced his plan of settling the matter, such was the anxiety of the Convention to select a Western man and a popular man with the army and the war men, it is almost certain that Gen. Blair would have been named first on the ticket. The selection of that eminent civilian and statesman, and highly conservative Democrat, Horatio Seymour, is proof positive that the party had no plan marked out, other than such an one as the Constitution, experience and a wise forecaste would readily suggest, after the restoration of the Constitution has been effected. What concerned the National Democratic Convention at New York, first and foremost, was the laying down such fundamental principles as would, if endorsed by the people, first make the road to the resuscitation and restoration of the Constitution and the National government easy and certain. What the Convention was most concerned about was to ascertain, first, whether the people of the United States were willing to make a struggle against the Congress, in restoring and maintaining the Federal Constitution and the Federal Government, or whether they would yield to the spirit of usurpation and revolution, and allow both to be swept away! That was the first point and the chief point to be determined by the Convention. If the people shall determine that the Federal Constitution and the Federal Government shall be restored and maintained—if they shall determine, by the election of Seymour and Blair, that they shall have a Constitution and a free Government,—then it will be time enough to proceed to correct the usurpations and revolutionary mismanagement of the government in the past!—So far from the National Democratic Convention endorsing either the previously expressed opinions of Mr. Seymour or Gen. Blair, that body laid down, first, its own platform, and then nominated them, requiring them to come to its platform. The Convention and its supporters are only responsible for the doctrines of its platform, and not for the personal views of any particular individual.

But it is evident Gen. Blair, himself, intended no war and expects none. In his letter of acceptance, speaking of a change in the State governments forced upon us, he says: "The appeal to the peaceful ballot to attain this end, is not war, is not revolution." Again, in another letter still more recent, he says: "I am for that policy which alone can give peace to the country." Gen. Blair is for following the Constitution and consulting the will of the people. Is there any war in that?

But now, for the sake of argument, we put the question directly to these venerable gentlemen, suppose the people in the next election should decide that the powers of the government had been usurped by the 39th and 40th Congresses, and that their reconstruction acts were unconstitutional and void; and suppose the Supreme Court of the United States were also to make the same decision, and the Executive were to assume the full functions of his office, and Congress, under the moral force of the popular will, convinced that that will must prevail, were to yield to it; and suppose the Executive, in obedience to that will, should proceed to undo what Congress has done, in so far as to guarantee to the people of the several States the right to form such Republican governments, in accordance with the Federal Constitution, as they might choose pronouncing the State governments now in existence provis onal, until valid constitutional governments were formed in them,—would there necessarily be war or cause of war? We think not. But Judge Pearson and Mr. Boyden contend that the negroes would not submit to it, and the State governments in existence would not submit to it! Would the government of the United States be guilty of nullification, or would its supporters be nullifiers, if, in the exercise of its constitutional powers, it were to restore to the Southern States constitutional and valid Republican governments, in the place of the revolutionary and unconstitutional ones forced upon them by the Congress, at the point of the bayonet? They would hardly say so. Yet these venerable men argue that the people of the Southern States had better submit to these carpet-bag negro governments, unconstitutional and illegitimate as they are, because, if an attempt were made to change them by force, war would ensue! In such a case, who would make the war and against whom would it be directed? Why, of course, the carpet-bag governments and negroes would make the war against the government of the United States! Who then would be the nullifiers? Would these venerable men join the rebels and thus put themselves in the category of the hated "secessionists" and "Democrats?" Alas! we fear their old hatred of Democracy and secession has driven them from the Constitution into the arms of Radicalism,—a labyrinth of darkness, danger, despotism and ruin, from which there is no escape, e.

WHAT DO THE "CARPET-BAGGERS" CARE?

What do the "carpet baggers" care for the increased debt of the State? What do the scalawag officers care for the increase of the public debt? Nothing, simply nothing! They pay no tax! They are irresponsible! They can laugh at and mock at your calamity! They are not dependent on the tax payers for their votes, nor for the offices they fill and disgrace. 75,000 negro votes placed them in office! These negroes pay no taxes! They do not care! They, too, laugh and mock at the calamity of the tax payers of the State! Only think of it, North Carolinians! The public debt has been increased ten millions of dollars in less than six months!! You did not want this increased debt; you did not make it or assent to it! WHO DID? The "carpet-bagger" and negroes! They don't care!—They laugh at you! They pay no taxes! They spend your money!!

THE WOMAN INSULTERS.

Messrs. Editors:—I live a long ways in the backwoods, and, consequently, did not see the extract from the Standard, which appeared in the Sentinel of the 21st., and was reinserted on the 22nd., until to day. I declare, most confidently, that I have never heard nor read so unprovoked, low and vile an insult to any class of females in all my life. The man who wrote it, and all concerned, who sanctioned or aided its publication, deserve to be tarred and feathered and drummed out of every decent community; and any civil officer, executive or what not, who will make a paper containing such vile and filthy stuff leveled against the virtuous females of the State, in which he lives, his organ, and allow it to be published on his premises, virtually endorses the slander, and deserves the contempt of every one having the least pretension to honor and decency. From my knowledge of some of the "ring," (and I have been behind the scenes in my day,) I can imagine, what gleefulness the Standard coterie, with many high State officials among them, gloated over the sudden flash of virtuous indignation that the article alluded to aroused in the community. O, yes! the filthy, slanderous sheet, and the low bred leaders of the party, had tried, and tried in vain, to irritate the respectable portion of the people of the State to angry wrangling and resentment of their insults and opprobrium; but now they had touched the right key; now they had galled them to the quick, and they rejoiced and were glad, just as the inhabitants of the lower regions grin with joy when they see their hellish efforts effective in the destruction of virtue or piety.

Now, Messrs. Editors, I have read your remarks on this extract, and I approve them as far they go, but I suggest the carrying of the matter a little further than merely the throwing the dirty paper out of door. Let all decent people, and especially the ladies, resolve that not only the Standard shall not come into their houses, but that they will hold no social intercourse with any one who supports it in any way; that they will trade with no merchant or shop keeper who advertises in it, nor attend any sale, auction or place of amusement, the handbills advertising which shall be printed at the establishment, if they know it. If there are any decent men engaged at the establishment, in any capacity whatever, self-respect demands that they leave it, and if they are dependent on their salaries for their daily bread, begging would be a much more decent and respectable method of making a living than getting it in such a place.

What does the Standard advise? Why, that the nomadic fellows that swarm over the State in the capacity of office seekers—the scalawag officers care for the increase of the public debt? Nothing, simply nothing! They pay no tax! They are irresponsible! They can laugh at and mock at your calamity! THE WOMAN INSULTERS.

What does the Standard advise? Why, that the nomadic fellows that swarm over the State in the capacity of office seekers—the scalawag carpet-baggers, who go through the country as stump speakers and electioneerers,—shall go to your house, reader, or to mine, when we may be absent, and insult our wives, daughters, and sisters by presenting them presents of trinkets, and then to throw their arms around their necks, and go as much farther as a hellish or demoralized nature may dictate. This is what the Standard advises Jim Harris and Galloway and Hayes and Carey and the rest of the leading negroes, black and white, to do, and then adds the galling insult, that our loved and lovely females "will like it," and, still more deeply galling, that they will submit to such treatment at night, if they seem a little coy by day-light.

The store house of malice and malignity has no more damnable, no more bitter, no more humiliating shafts of insult to level as to the virtue, the honor, the pride, and every thing else held clear and sacred by our oppressed people than is let loose from the bow of this assassin.

But don't tear down the office; don't offer them personal violence, if you can help it, when you meet them; don't even threaten them with any of these things, for that is what they are trying to provoke. But you have a right, people of Raleigh, and of the whole State, to give them the just rebuke I have suggested, and in due time they will sink down to their own place, wrapped in the mantle of infamy, and the waves of oblivion will shut them out forever from the sight of angels and decent man.

BEAR SWAMP.

THE PROSPECTS.—We wish to assure our readers that all the battles, without exception, that have been joined against the enemy, whether in State, county, city, or town, up to the present hour, have shown such gains as to be indicative of the most excellent results in the October elections. Mr. Greeley, of the Tribune, has himself, in view of them, expressly stated to his friends that they must do better hereafter if they are to succeed.—Nat. Intel.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1868.

REGISTER! REGISTER!

1. Don't forge to Register. Every man must Register or he can not vote. If you registered before it will not answer unless you register now.

2. Registrars will register names between the 15th of October, till and including the day of election, on the 3rd of November.

3. Registrars must give notice of the times and the places when they will register, and should not register at other times. No improper voter can be challenged except when he proposes to register; hence, the people should know when and where the registration takes place.

4. The Seymour and Blair Clubs must be sure to have proper persons at the Registrar's tables to challenge improper voters at all times. See to this.

5. There is no election in Virginia on the 3rd of November. We learn that negroes are being brought from Virginia into our border counties, on the pretence of working, but really for the purpose of registering and voting at our elections. Remember, no man has a right to register or to vote in this State unless he has been in the State one year before the election, and in the county, where he registers, thirty days before the election.

6. We beg our exchanges, public speakers, and friends generally, to have the people fully informed on the above subjects.

7. Tickets! Be sure to have every precinct well supplied with tickets. The names of candidates for Electors, &c., should be written or printed in full. Every County must order their own tickets in time.

TICKETS! TICKETS!!

Our friends throughout the State must be sure to have tickets enough for every precinct, at the approaching election. Let each county supply its own tickets and order them in good time.

APPOINTMENTS.

M. S. Robins, Esq., our Elector for the 5th Congressional District, requests us to announce that Col. Livingston Brown and himself will address the people at the following times and places, viz: At Kernersville,	Wednesday,	Sept.	30.

Danbury,	Thursday,	Oct.	1.

Winston,	Thursday,	"	8.

Mr. Robins also requests us to say, that he extends a cordial invitation to the Radical Elector, Maj. H A. Badham, to be present and participate in the discussion.

The reader will observe that several of the latter appointments conflict with Colonel Brown's previously published appointments. We presume that Col. Brown will attend his own appointments, as already announced, at Lexington, Albemarle and Winston, and that Mr. Robins will be at Spainhour's, Bethania and Winston, as announced above.

See advertisement of Austin, Corbin & Co., in another column.

New Advertisements.—L. E. Heartt announces new arrivals of Fall Goods, embracing the most attractive and elegant, as well as substantial, varieties. I. O. O. F.—We are requested to state, that there will be a meeting of the I. O. O. F., at the Mayor's Office, on Thursday evening, Oct. 1st., at 8 o'clock.

All members of the order, who are in the city, are most respectfully requested to attend.

Wild Pigeons.—Numerous flocks of these migratory birds have been passing Southward over this section, within a few days past,—a sign, the "old folks" say, of a hard winter.

Query.—Is it lawful for printed orders from the Headquarters of the U. L. A. of North Carolina, signed by Littlefield as Grand Master and Menninger as Grand Secretary, to be franked by "J. T. Deweese, M. C.?"

Arrangements are progressing for a grand Seymour and Blair Mass Meeting in Charlotte, during the month of October.

THE PEOPLE ARE THINKING.

It is gratifying to see that the white people of all classes, including hundreds who have been heretofore co-operating with the Radicals, are learning that it is the settled purpose of the "carpet-baggers," and a few desperate, degenerate scallawags, to secure negro rule and ascendancy in this State and the whole South.' One of the best indications of this, is the fact, that very few white people attend Radical meetings anywhere. We hear of such meetings in every direction, but the white people will not attend; they hate negro rule and they are beginning to feel its terrible effects especially in the matter of an increased public debt and the oppressive taxation that is to follow. The most noticeable fact in the late negro Mass-Meeting, in this City, was the absence of the white people.

Leaving out (say) fifty "carpet baggers," there were not fifty native white people at the meeting! But every possible effort was made to get them here; the Railroads were prostituted where the Radicals controlled them, and money was freely used to accomplish this end, and the white people were implored to come. But they came not.—Why? Because they are tired of negro rule and negro association and equality!—That is the reason. They are alarmed and astonished at an increase of $10,000,000 of the public debt in less than six months!—"Carpet baggers" and scalawags! Don't you see the handwriting on the wall? The day of popular reckoning with YOU IS CLOSE BY!

HON. SION H. ROGERS.

Our gallant and able candidate for Congress is working with indefatigable energy and zeal. He will thoroughly canvass every portion of the District, and his speeches are said to be most effective, popular and telling.

We have reason to know that he has invited the carpet-bag candidate to meet him on the hustings,—allowing him, even, to make the appointments. Will Deweese accept the gage? We shall see.

There is no man in this District so generally and so favorably known as Sion H. Rogers. If our friends will work with an industry worthy of the cause, he will be elected, and Col. Deweese be granted permission to return to Indiana!

Indignant Negroes.—We have already stated that Warmouth, the "carpet-bag" Governor of Louisiana, has vetoed the Civil Rights Bill,—giving negroes the same entree to public conveyances, theatres, hotels, &c., as white men. A perfect storm was raised by the negro members, when the veto message was received in the Legislature. They denounce what they term his ingratitude and treachery, and threaten him with impeachment.

The white members of the Legislature are confident of sustaining the veto.

Remarkable Document.—A correspondent of the "Woman Insulter" writes to that paper:

"I have also read with great pleasure the able address of R. W. Lassiter, Esq. I would be glad to have one thousand copies of Mr. Bynum's speech and one thousand of Mr. Lassiter's bound together as a campaign document—so that the political and moral view of the great issues between the parties might appear at once."

Two thousand pamphlets bound together would, indeed, be a remarkable campaign document. Such a "political and moral view of the great issues" would be very handy!

FLAG PRESENTATION.

The ladies of the Eastern Ward have prepared a beautiful Flag for presentation to the Seymour and Blair Club of the Ward. This is just like them—always patriotic and true.

The Presentation ceremonies will take place at the new Club Room, on Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock.

A number of speeches may be expected. Immediately after the presentation, the flag will be hoisted to the top of the pole, which will be erected during the day of Wednesday.

The ladies of the city, and the Clubs of the Middle and Western Wards, are respectfully invited to be present.

MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE.

The Seymour and Blair Club of Nutbush District, Warren, propose to have a Mass Meeting and Barbecue at "Enterprise," on Saturday next, Oct. 3rd. Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Cols. W. J. Green, Ed. Graham Haywood and W. A. Jenkins, Wm. Eaton, Jr., Esq., Capt. J. J. Davis, Gen. M. W. Ransom and Seaton Gales, Esq., have been invited to be present and address the people. A glorious time may be anticipated, and the people, generally, are invited to be present.

MASS MEETING AND BARBACUE.

There will be a grand rally of the Democrats and Conservatives at Mebanesville, Alamance, on Thursday, October 8th.—There will be a splendid Barbecue, and a number of distinguished speakers are expected. The public are cordially invited to attend.

EPITAPH.

[DIED AT BANKS', SEPT 25, 1868.]

Here lies one Whitson,—a parson they say—
And once an Agent of Pollard's;
Who, now no longer "Wearing the Grey"
Devotes his attention to Collards!

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR!"

"COME ON!" roared Deweese; "there can be no peace,— We've neither pistol, nor shot-gun nor ball."
Will Congress it heed, amid great merriment,
And Deweese had the thanks of us all!

Gen. Rufus Barringer has declined the appointment of Colonel of Melish for Mecklenburg, tendered him by "the man who writes himself Governor."

Alexander Superior Court.—P. E. Shober, Esq., addressed a large concourse of the citizens of Alexander, at Taylorsville, on Wednesday last, with telling effect. Col. Hamilton C. Jones, who was present, also addressed the people upon the issues of the day. Great changes are taking place in that county.—Statesville American.

THE INSULT TO THE SOUTHERN LADIES.

The meeting in Goldsboro, on Friday last, for the purpose of denouncing the Standard's villainous and brutal attack upon the women of North Carolina, was a very large and indignant one. It was held irrespective of party, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That with inexpressible indignation and horror, we have read an article in the North Carolina Standard of the 19th inst., headed "WORK," and regard it as a foul libel and brutal attack on the purity and honor of the female sex, not only of North Carolina, but of all the States of the South, and as an indelible mark of the ineffable infamy of its polluted author.

Resolved, That, regardless of all party affiliations, no true man can justly be silent, when wives, mothers, sisters and daughters are thus wantonly defamed, and we therefore feel called upon to denounce, with all the force of the English language, the article in question, as at once the disgrace of the doggish author, and a foul, unmerited blot on the party of which the paper containing it has hitherto been regarded as the organ.

Resolved, That we can view the base author in no other light than that of a foul libertine, unfit for the society even of bawds and harlots, and that he should be forthwith expelled from the society of all honorable men, and held up as the scorn and detestation of all parties.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, all patronage should be immediately withdrawn from the Raleigh Standard, until it shall have published to the world the guilty name of him who has thus brought it into merited disgrace, and banished himself and his polluted pen from all connection with its columns.

That Great Meeting At Banks'

Messrs. Editors.—I wish to give you a short report of the short meeting the Rads had at Banks', on the 26th. Bills had been stuck up, for several weeks before, giving due notice that there would be a Republican meeting here on that day. There is an old maxim, "a short horse is soon curried"—very applicable to this meeting. There was no body at it but the three white men, (Collards Whitson, "Adjutant General" Fisher and another,) and two negroes, who came from Raleigh! Just as they were about to take their departure, one old negro made his appearance,—one that used to be as full of meanness as an egg is of meat, and I do not suppose he has lost much of it since he was freed. Uncle Clem was the only person from Panther Branch District to attend this great Radical meeting! Doesn't this exceed anything yet? Don't you say hurrah for Panther Branch District?

The Raleigh crowd gave Uncle Clem a short drilling and handed him between fifty and one hundred documents—the Legislative address.

I hope the Radical vote at Banks' will be as few in number as the audience here on Saturday. If it does, it will be ONE, and that will be old Uncle Clem!

The 26th will be a day long to be remembered by the would be Radical orators that attended the great meeting at Banks.' I suppose that they are sufficiently amused, and that their political aspirations are abundantly satisfied. If not, let them do like the deer-hunters, in the days of flint-locks, "pick flint and try again!" They will have to do the best "picking" ever done, however, to get a crowd to hear such in old Panther Branch District.

Seymour and Blair in Wake.

Mount's Ville, Sept. 26, 1868.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock, P. M.—the President, R. H. Jones, in the chair.

The Recording Secretary being absent, the Corresponding Secretary acted.

The President invited all desiring to join the Club to come forward and enroll their names, when several were added to the roll.

A motion to appoint a Committee of five to attend the Board of Registration, and the Polls, on day of election, to urge the registration of all, &c., was adopted.

The Committee, as follows, was appointed by the Chair: Sidney Scott, Jno. Sorrell, M. W. Page, V. Castleberry, Rufus Slater.

A. G. Jones, Esq., in a lengthy and eloquent address, entertained the Club. He showed up plainly mongrelism in all its forms.

The Club will meet at Morrisville, on Saturday, the 17th. of October. A full attendance is requested, to transact business of importance.

Meeting in Currituck.

At a meeting of the Seymour and Blair Club, held at Moyock, Currituck Co., on Saturday, 19th. September,—Jno. Barnard, Esq., President, in the chair, and Wm. D. Goodman, Secretary,—Dr. Wm. H. Lassell having read the correspondence between Gen. Rosecranz and Gen. Lee,

Thos. Sanderlin introduced the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted without a dissenting voice:

Whereas, Gen. Rosecranz has addressed, from the White Sulphur Springs, certain queries to Gen. R. E. Lee and others, in regard to the status of the Southern people, particularly involving the right of self-government to the people of the South, upon which their prosperity and happiness so much depend:

Resolved, That the principles and sentiments expressed in said letter meet our cordial and unqualified approval, as well as the approval of all with whom we hold personal intercourse.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are hereby tendered Gen. Lee for the truthful and graceful manner he has spoken in behalf of the people of the South.

On motion, it was ordered that these proceedings be published in the Raleigh "Sentinel."

Seymour and Blair in Orange.

There was a meeting of the Seymour and Blair Club held at Durham's, on Saturday, the 26th. inst. The meeting was addressed by the Hon. William H. Battle, and Messrs Strudwick, Argo, Lutlow and Potts.

The assemblage was very large, both of white and colored citizens, who gave marked attention to the able and elaborate remarks of Judge Battle and the other gentlemen.

Old Orange is all right, and with such men as a Battle, a Graham, a Nash and a Turner as leaders, the Old North State will give Seymour and Blair a large majority in November next. She will throw off the grievous yoke of Radicalism, carpet-baggism, and every other ism, that may tend to mar her prosperity and happiness. G.

Anson County.—A private letter from Anson informs us that the whole county is in a blaze of enthusiasm for Seymour and Blair, and that we may count on at least three hundred majority.—Wil. Star.

WHO BRING IT ON?

If a man loads a gun, sets its trigger to the hair-point, draws back its hammer to full cock, and then puts it in the hands of an idiot or a maniac, who is responsible for its subsequent discharge and any fatality that may result? If a combination of men place under a much frequented thoroughfare a torpedo so arranged that the concussion of a random footstep may cause it to explode, who is responsible for the disaster to life and property that may ensue?

Everybody sees where the responsibility lies in each case. If murder is done, the guilt appertains, in the first place, and in a paramount degree, to him who prepared and bestowed the gun, or to them who constructed and laid the torpedo.

Suppose, nevertheless, that a person charged with the mischief inflicted by some fatal contrivance such as indicated, should claim impunity on the ground that he did not pull the trigger of the gun, or did not, with his own hands, fire the train of the torpedo. Nay, suppose that he should even charge the guilt upon the luckless individual who happened to be in the way of the idiot or the maniac when recklessly playing with a deadly firearm, or upon the inadvertent passengers who happened to cause the explosion of the torpedo by the concussion of their random footsteps. The absurdity and the impudence of such a plea and of such an accusation would be too much either for the gravity or patience of judge and jury.

Yet the impudence and the absurdity would not be greater in that case than they are in the case of the criminals who have contrived the mischiefs which are now befalling, or threatening to befall every State, every city, every county or parish comprised in the black circle of the reconstruction horror and infamy.

The peace is broken and thickening dangers impend in Georgia, in South Carolina, in Alabama, in Louisiana, in Arkansas. The caldron of trouble boils and hisses. Every ingredient that can increase the bitterness, loathsomeness and venom of its witch broth is daily contributed to it. Fuel is constantly added to make it hot and hotter. The land is sown broadcast with dragon's teeth, and on every hand combustible and explosive materials are deposited and disposed so that a spark, even the friction of men coming and going, of men at work or in the pursuit of pleasure, may cause explosion and conflagration. Social discords and antagonisms, social instability and misery are elaborately organized.

And who are the contrivers of this atrocious condition of things? What do they say when the peace is broken, when rioting is rife, when States verge upon anarchy and society is forced to a final and desperate struggle for existence? They disclaim all responsibility for the inevitable results of their iniquitous contrivance. They are the men who lay the guilt of every consequent evil upon those who become the victims of their wickedness, of upon those who fight manfully against their incendiary and murderous devices. They audaciously assume the functions of both judge and accuser. In Georgia they demand that a law abiding community shall be put under ban and subjected to dragonade, because it dared to give efficient assistance to a peace officer of the State in dispersing an ignorant and brutal mob of negroes, headed by black-hearted and cowardly whites. Here in New Orleans similar mobs, under similar leadership, hold high revels through the city, uttering obscene cries and ferocious howls, sacking houses, assailing, wounding and killing peaceable people, firing pistols and brandishing torches, threatening to exterminate citizens with the first and to destroy the houses of the city with the last. And what do the leaders and organizers of these scenes do, when such tumult and excitement as those of Tuesday night are produced? How do they behave at the sight of this development of their infamous work? They propose to "investigate" the matter, and place the responsibility where it belongs. Think of it! These criminals, snatches steeped to the heart and brain in the foulest and basest criminality of the time, say that they will fix the criminal responsibility in this case. What would become of justice in London, if Newgate were allowed to usurp the office of King's Bench? How must the cause of peace, of law and order, of individual and social rights and of honest industry and material property fare in Louisiana, if left to the final decision of a crew of carpet baggers and scallawags.—New Orleans Crescent.

The Radical Rump Congress have cost the country, in the way of Congressional expenses merely, nearly ten times as much every year as full Congresses, wherein all the States were represented, used to cost. Here is an item. The estimates for public printing in 1869 were as follows:

Salaries of Superintendent, clerks, &c.	$11,517
Paper for printing,	100 000
Blank books and advertising,	3,100
Printing,	70,000
Total	$184,617

Since then the salaries have not been increased, but the items for paper and printing merely for the Congressional year ending June 30, 1868, are as follows:

Paper,	$750, 00
Printing,	448,000

and the total expense is $1,652,715, against $184,617 under Democratic rule. The people are thus swindled to print impeachment evidence and trash, committee trash, and Radical electioneering documents, which are franked through the mails at the cost of the people. How long will the country permit the robbers to remain in power?—N. Y. World.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will bear the least burden upon and best promote, improve the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of the Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of to exercise powers for political purposes the alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ter States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret war chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and its consummation by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be grateful remembered and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NEW YORK.

THE

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN: this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11 751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premiums paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.
